

Business & Tourism Educators Conference 2017

Learners' Futures in a World Under Pressure

Wednesday May 3

17:30-20:30

Tap & Barrel

Thursday May 4		Room # CE 122	Room # CE 134	Room # CE 135	Room # CE 136
Session	Environmental	Human Resource	Economic	Teaching
8:00 - 9:00	CE 120	Screamin' Beans Cafe - Coffee & Networking
8:45 - 9:30	CE 148	Opening Plenary: Context Setting and Welcome
9:40 - 10:30		From Accounting to Human Resources, Caring for our Planet can be Embedded in your Curriculum	The Importance of Small Business and the Alternative Economy		Opening up and Widening Out: Using Universal Design for Learning (UDL) practices to support learner success.
10:30 - 11:00	CE 120	Screamin' Beans Cafe - Coffee & Networking
11:00 - 11:45		Sustainability through Cooperation	Leading with Emotional Intelligence		Empowering our Future Generation of Professionals
11:45 - 12:30		Publisher Session: Wiley Sustainability in an Unsustainable Industry: Adapting Academic Publishing for the Future	Publisher Session: McGraw Hill Connect2: Complete Course Advantage	Publisher Session: Pearson Leading your Institution to Digital Delivery	Concepts and Documentary Resources for Cultural/Heritage Tourism
12:30 - 13:45		Lunch Birch Lower Cafeteria
13:45 - 14:30		EarthWorks: An Interdisciplinary Project	The Power of the Crowd	Business Ethics, Sustainability and the Principles of Responsible Investment	Mental Health in the Classroom
14:30 - 15:15		Whistler Blackcomb's Climate Change and Resource Efficiency Strategy	Human Rights & Indigenous Tourism	The Design Challenge of Green Business Management Programs	The Art of Persuasion
15:15 - 15:45	CE 120	Screamin' Beans Cafe - Coffee & Networking
15:45 - 16:30	LB 322	Closing Plenary: Is it Necessary to Regulate the Growing Sharing Economy in British Columbia?
17:00 - 20:00	BOSA	Film & Food

